NO SCANDAL, JUDGE RULES

Mrs. Carolyn Votaw Curious
Regarding Whereabouts of Forbes, Letter Says

By Associated Press

Chicago.—The name of Mrs. Carolyn Votaw, sister of the late President, Harding, was brought momentarily into the federal court trial Thursday of Col. Charles R. Forbes and John W. Thompson of St. Louis for conspiracy to defraud the government. A letter identified by Elias H. Mortimer, the chief government witness, as having been received by himself at San Francisco from Thompson, was read to the jury over strenuous objections of defense counsel. "It would drag scandal into this case."

After reading the letter, Judge George A. Carpenter declared it was in itself innocent of any scandal. Mortimer, just before the letter was read, started to relate a conversation between himself, Thompson and Forbes which dealt with keeping the proposed Pacific coast trip of Forbes, Mortimer and others a secret from Mrs. Votaw, when Judge Carpenter halted him.

CD-ECT TO LETTER

This Thompson letter in full on a folded sheet of social correspondence was objected to by Randolph Loughlin of St. Louis, Thompson's counsel. He advised Judge George A. Carpenter to read the letter. He said the letter would "drag scandal" into the case.

Judge Carpenter said he could see no scandal in the letter and "the press will drag scandal into this case at their own risk."

The letter said Thompson had gone riding with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Votaw and that she seemed curious about the whereabouts of Colonel Forbes. The letter then gave detailed instructions to Mortimer about the story he should concoct to account for the western trip of the Mortimers, to make the trip seem to have been to Minneapolis on a visit to Mortimer's family. "Be guided by above," the letter closed, signed by "J. W." Thompson's initials.

MADISON POLICE TRAVEL IN PAIRS

Chief Orders Close Precautions and Strict Search After Murder

By Associated Press

Madison.—Madison police officers Thursday were ordered by Chief of Police Shaughnessy to patrol the streets after sundown, to question all persons on the streets at night and take those into custody who cannot explain their presence and to carry firearms on their persons in a position easily accessible for use.

The orders are a direct outgrowth of the murder of Patrolman Herbert Dreger Tuesday night. The instructions apply particularly to the Italian and west side sections, police officials said.

Salvatore D'Imartino and Frank Vitale, arrested in connection with the murder, would be arraigned Thursday afternoon as was expected.

Five Are Killed As Limited Train Hits Turpentine Truck

Bodies Are Burned Beyond Recognition When Spark from Trolley Ignites Inflammable
Fluid

Detroit, Mich.—Crashing into the trailer of a truck loaded with 40 steel drums of turpentine, a limited train on the Detroit-United Lines interurban, bound from Detroit to Cleveland, was wrecked at Wyandotte, a suburb, Wednesday night.

Five persons were killed and their bodies burned beyond recognition by the fire which destroyed the front car of the two-car interurban train.

More than a score of persons were bruised and cut by flying glass but all succeeded in making their escape from the flaming wreckage.

Daniel Callahan of Toledo, motorman on the wrecked car, was killed. His body was found half way back in the wrecked car, underneath one of the drums.

Mrs. Garrett Kisselberth of Toledo, O., the only other one of the dead identified, suffered a fractured skull and is believed to have been dead when the fire started.

DIED BEFORE FIRE STARTED

The other three dead include two women and a little girl, all found in their seats and who are believed to have died before the car caught fire. They have not been identified but are believed to be residents of Ohio.

The interurban limited with a parlor car in front, was said by witnesses to have been traveling about 60 miles an hour when it struck the trailer of a truck driven by Harry Culver of Toledo. The steel drums of turpentine were hurled through the air and into the parlor car. It is believed sparks from a trolley wire which broke when the crash came set fire to the turpentine. The front car of the train was burned to the tracks.

Culver, the truck driver, who escaped injury, was taken into custody by the police pending an investigation of the crash.

INDIAN PRINCES
UNMASK "MR. A."

London.—Withdrawal of the secrecy surrounding the identity of the mysterious Indian prince referred to as "Mr. A." during the trial of the Robin Hood blackmailing case, says the Daily Express was due to protests from the ruling Maharajah of India. These rulers urged the British government to disclose the name, which had been withheld "for reasons of state," so as to remove the damaging and cruel suspicions which they declared were directed against themselves.

The Indian office Wednesday lifted the embargo on the publication of "Mr. A's" name and it was stated that he was the Rajah Sir Hari Singh, nephew of the Maharajah of Jammu and Kashmir.

NATION FACES FAT YEARS, IS MELLON VIEW

Secretary of Treasury Forecasts Period of Prosperity
in Annual Report

TRANSITION IS COMPLETE

United States Is First World
Power to Recover Completely From War

Washington.—Years of "prosperous and healthy conditions such as succeeded the election of 1896" were forecast for the United States by Secretary Mellon in the annual report of the treasury sent to Congress Wednesday. The secretary's views are based, he said, on the repudiation of "various theories inconsistent with economic laws" and the endorsement of a program of constructive handling of government affairs given in the last election. He counseled the nation, however, to approach its problems with intelligence that the progress made and the groundwork laid in the last four years may not come to naught.

The United States, he asserted, was the first world power to come through the post-war transition stage successfully and the first to be able to present "reasonable assurance" that "true progress" will continue within its borders. Mr. Mellon urged perpetuation of the program adopted by "the great majority of our people in the last election" which he interpreted as one of "hard work, economy and sound policies."

In general economic conditions as well as in the domain of federal fiscal operations, Mr. Mellon recounted how complete the transition had been. He said that in the last four years the per capita tax on citizens of the United States had been cut from $64 to $27, or exactly one half; public expenditures which in 1924 exceeded $6,500,000, were only $3,500,000,000 in the fiscal year which ended last July 1, and the "complete disorganization" of the economic structure by the collapse of prices in 1920 and 1921 had been rectified.

The lifting of the tax burden, although slight as the decrease has been, has done much for business, Mr. Mellon said, and he expressed the hope that more could be done soon. He said he desired tax reform as well as tax reduction and warned again, using the field of taxation as a field "for socialistic experiment or as a club to punish success." If this were done, he said, the conditions of a few years ago may come back.

Master Swindler Draws Sentence of From One to Ten years

By Associated Press

Chicago.—In a cell in the Cook-jail, Leo Koretz, master swindler, awaited sentence Thursday on four indictments to which he pleaded guilty
Wednesday. Friday State's Attorney
Crowe plans, he will be on his way to the penitentiary at Stateville.

The sentence on each of the indictments is indeterminate, from one to ten years. If they are imposed to the maximum, Koretz may be free at the end of six years and three months, providing his good behavior merits
the maximum clemency.

Koretz checked in at the county jail
Wednesday night. He said he was 45 or 46 years old, born in Bohemia and had no address. His occupation was listed as an investor in securities. He was assigned to cell No. 13.

Fate and tired, he faced Judge Hopkins in the little courtroom in which was held the Leob-Leopold murder trial, and calmly acknowledged guilt to charges of larceny, larceny by bailee embezzlement and promotion of a confidence game. Three counts of each bill were dismissed.

Economic Program May Give Coolidge Place In History

Word "Economy" Is Predominant in President's Annual Message to Congress, Lawrence Says

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1924 by the Post Pub. Co.

Washington, D. C.—President Coolidge's place in American history will be made on at least one achievement if he gets the cooperation of Congress, namely economy. He may be known as the most economical president the country ever had.

The word "economy" occurs again and again in his annual message to Congress. He emphasizes it, reiterates it and drives it home as the transient issue of the hour. Tax reduction, prosperity and the general welfare all depend upon it.

Briefly, the surplus indicated for the fiscal year beginning July 1, next is about $67,000,000. Mr. Coolidge thinks this is too narrow a margin above receipts to undertake tax reduction, for socialistic experiment or as a club to punish success." If this were done, he said, the conditions of a few years ago may come back.

Despite Findings of Chemist and Pathologist, Murphy
Sticks to Verdict

By Associated Press

Columbus, O.—Mrs. Addie Sheatsley, wife of the Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, pastor of Christ Evangelical Lutheran church of Bexley, a suburb, whose body was found in the furnace of the Sheatsley home, committed suicide, Coroner Murphy held in his formal report of the tragedy filed with the county clerk of courts Thursday.

Coroner Murphy from the start held to his view that Mrs. Sheatsley deliberately crawled into the furnace, in spite of the fact that C. V. Long, chemist, and Dr. H. M. Brundage, pathologist, after a series of tests said it was their opinion she met death in the furnace.

County Prosecutor John R. King has never accepted the theory that Mrs. Sheatsley's body must have been placed in the heating plant.

Coroner Murphy in his official report said that expert testimony to the contrary, he was compelled to adhere to his belief that Mrs. Sheatsley ended her own life.

There was no evidence of a struggle in the Sheatsley home, the coroner's report stated. This with Mrs. Sheatsley's physical condition and her actions during the morning of the day of her death, is proof, the coroner declared, that she destroyed herself on the hot bed of coals.

FAVORS SALE OF SHOALS

Mr. Coolidge thinks Muscle Shoals should be sold to the best bidder so as to develop the plants there for the production of nitrates for the farmer and he stresses again the value of his policy of consolidation of railways as a means of cutting down freight rates. Also, the president thinks consolidation by equalizing railway earnings will remove much of the criticism of the famous 15 A section of the transportation act which permits the roads to earn a certain amount on the valuation.

In respect to the labor clauses of the transportation act, Mr. Coolidge strikes a middle ground between the labor groups which want the contracts settled by boards of conciliation and voluntary arbitration and the insistence of the railroads that unless the present law can be improved upon the country had better keep on with the railroad labor board.

Mr. Coolidge does inject the thought that in these local boards the public shall have representation which, of course, was one of the points on which the Howell-Balkley bill was criticized in the last session of Congress.

Attorney General Stone would make no comment on the case Wednesday beyond that the removal was "for the good of the service."

Mr. Harris also refused to comment, saying merely that he would resume private practice.

Chicago.—President Coolidge arrived in Chicago on A. M. Thursday to inspect and speak at the International Livestock Exposition and address a luncheon gathering of the Commercial Club of Chicago.

The Women's Roosevelt Republican Club, as official hostesses arranged a luncheon for Mrs. Coolidge.

The evening program will include a parade of 1,250 boys and girls from 41 states brought here as guests of the exhibition.

The horse show will terminate with the judging of trotting horses for the champion roaster stake. The finale will be the parade of the prize winning draft horses of all breeds including champions, a string valued at more than a million dollars.

The departure of the presidential party is set for 8:45 P. M.

President Coolidge told businessmen of Chicago Thursday that neither business nor nations can live to themselves alone.

Speaking at a luncheon of the Chicago Commercial Club, the chief executive appealed for inclusion of the spirit of mutual aid in the relationships between business and agriculture and in the dealings among nations.

"You people of commerce, you people of the city, are an integral part of the life of agriculture, of the life of the country," he told the business leaders of the middle west's metropolis.

NEED COOPERATION

"We can no more assure permanent and stable peace without cooperation among the nations, than we can secure victory in war without allies among them," he asserted in urging application of the principle of mutual aid to international relationships.

The president, in his address, the first of the two he plans to make during his visit to Chicago, said he liked to think of the Illinois city "as the great market place to which the world resorts to buy and sell its food," and drew a parallel between the Biblical

BADGER HIGHWAYS COST 50 MILLION IN TWELVE YEARS

Is $50,626,782

Madison — Appropriations for highway purposes from state, county and local sources in Wisconsin since 1912, aggregate fifty million dollars, according to the biennial report of the state highway commission adopted Monday and submitted to Governor Blaine T. Thompson.

The exact total of state, county and local appropriations for highway purposes during the 12 year period is $50,626,782, the summary shows. Of this amount, the state had provided $10,926,244, counties $28,913,335, and local units $10,885,529.

Maintenance of the state highway system has grown from $97,430 in 1912 when 4,990 miles of road were maintained, to $2,646,055 with 8,403 miles the report declares. The cost per mile for maintenance work since 1912, is given as follows: 1912, $195; 1913, $254; 1920 $276; 1921, $218; 1922, $282; 1923, $335.

Wisconsin has been allotted by the federal government for highway purposes, funds amounting to $12,678,431, the report reveals. This includes allotments since 1916 when the federal aid act was passed. During the fiscal year 1924-25, the state will have available $1,577,500 from the government.

Since 1912, the state has allotted to counties for construction work a total of $10,928,260, it is shown by the report. During 1924, allotments of state aid aggregate $785,000, the same amount prevailing for each year since 1920.

ON THE SCREEN

FIRST BENNIE LEONARD PIC-TURE COMING SOON

"Breaking In," the first of six pictures in which Bennie Leonard, the world's greatest champion lightweight is being starred, is coming to the New Bijou Theatre Friday and Saturday. According to advance reports, Bennie has created quite a furor by his acting in this film.

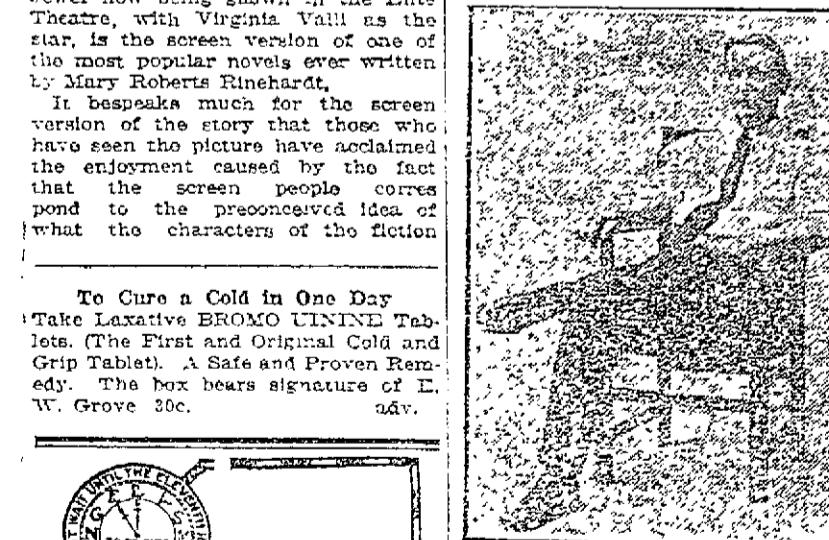

To those who have seen him on the stage, or who have read the stories of Sam Hellman in the Saturday Evening Post, the news of Bennie's success in pictures will be no surprise. Bennie resembles the old champion, James J. Corbett, in his versatile ability to switch from the prize ring to the stage or screen, and Hellman has created millions laugh by his delightful slangs.

"Breaking In," we are told is the story of a youth who works in an office. He is the only support of his mother and his crippled brother, and when the brother finds that he cannot continue in school unless he pays his tuition, Bennie tries to earn the money for him. How he meets the girl of his choice, enters the prize ring, wins his first bout and restores his brother to the good standing in school is only part of this entertaining story.

Bennie is supported by an excellent cast in "Breaking In." Diana Allen, of "Follies" fame is his leading woman, and she has been starred many times herself, she is a splendid foil for the handsome Bennie.

And as the picture ends with a prize ring, we predict that more than one fight fan will want to watch the manly Leonard using the ring tactics which have kept him from defeat since he won the world's champion ship in 1917.

MR. JAMES H. ALLEN, of 28 Forbester, Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it with what might be called marvellous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufficient everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.

The blessed relief this marvellous prescription quickly gives has made for it thousands of friends, says Vogt's Drug Store and Schantz Bros. Co. who have been appointed agents in your city. It is Mr. Allen's own discovery.

story really look like. This is especially true of Miss Valli, who has produced the living embodiment of Sidney Page.

Supporting Miss Valli are Percy Marmont, as K. LeMaye, who is a mysterious stranger of gentle manner; Margarita Fischer, victim of her love for a worthless man; Dr. Max Wilson, impersonated by John Roche; Francis Peeney and Maurice Ryan as the two youthful sweethearts of Sidney, and Myrtle Vane as Sidney's aunt.

Harry Pollard directed the picture and he so contrived to make the settings almost as vividly reflective of the story as do the actors. There is a tree-shaded street and abutting thereon old fashioned homes, in one of which that of Sidney, much of the action of the story takes place.

THE MESSAGE

The keystone of the triumphal arch which President Coolidge purposed to erect to commemorate his administration is economy. We think the president is one hundred per cent right. Not only is economy the greatest material need of the United States today but back of it lies social and spiritual adjustments which cannot be had without it. Economy should take precedence over every other legislative or administrative policy of the country. It is more essential to our national stability and progress, and to the contentment and welfare of the people, than any political proposal. It is intimately related to the prosperity of the individual, of every farmer, of every wage earner, of every business man.

The perspective of American history during the last generation discloses a picture of riotous extravagance. So great and rapid has been the development of our national wealth that it was attended by the most reckless spending. It was inevitable that this spending should reach into government and that it should saturate policies. As a result, we grew in a very short time from a hundred million dollar to a four billion dollar congress. This prodigious increase is out of all reasons. Public service, public works, public benefits have not been at all commensurate with this enormous outlay. Billions upon billions of dollars have been squandered in a way comparable only to dumping the money into the ocean. And this riot with public funds has gone on unchecked up to the time the late Mr. Harding became president.

Mr. Coolidge is entirely right when he says: "The government can do more to remedy the economic ills of the people by a system of rigid economy in public expenditure than can be accomplished through any other action. Nothing is more likely to produce that public confidence which is the forerunner and the mainstay of prosperity, encourage and enlarge business opportunity with ample opportunity for employment at good wages, provide a larger market for agricultural products, and put our country in a stronger position to meet the world competition in trade than a continuing policy of economy."

This is a perfectly true statement. It will be challenged by no one but bureaucrats and politicians. The misuse of money in the supposed conduct of government throughout the United States is nothing less than shocking. It is the direct cause of taxation that is a public and private burden. Take the money spent in Wisconsin, for instance, in the name of government. It is a wholesale scandal. Millions upon millions of dollars are literally wasted each year for the maintenance of a great political machine, and the irony of it is that the people are led by the politicians to holler their heads off in support of this machine and its terrific charge on their purse.

The greatest single achievement of the Coolidge and Harding administrations is economy. It is worth all of the other legislation and administrative acts combined. But economy has only just begun. Billions upon billions more of dollars that come out of the people's pocket can be saved in the years to come. It is Mr. Coolidge's purpose to force this economy on politics. He is not in favor of avoiding any of the legitimate needs of the nation. He is for an adequate navy, for the prosecution of all necessary public works, including waterways, and for the efficient operation of the government itself.

But all this can be done under reduced expenditures, which will in turn permit further extensive reductions in taxation. Out of the medley of alleged public questions, confusing for years to the voter's mind, Mr. Coolidge has extracted the one vital issue and forced it upon the national attention until it stands out in bold relief.

Minor proposals in his message are of the ethical, commonsense, constructive nature that characterizes his New England point of view. He is going to help agriculture in a practical way. He is going to help the railroads in a practical way. He wants to handle Muscle Shoals in a practical way, as well as the government's merchant fleet. He is for repeal of the publicity provision of the tax law and for approval of the Harding-Hughes World court proposal. He is for other laws and reforms that have some real meaning aside from vote-getting and the vagaries of politicians. For the tenth time during the last four years we are told the League of Nations is dead. This is a gratuitous concession to the Lodge heritage in the senate. Otherwise the message is a fine public document throughout.

HIGH WAGES AND LOW PRICES

"The American standard of living," in the opinion of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, "is the product of high wages to producers and low prices to consumers. The road to national progress lies in increasing real wages through proportionately lower prices. The one and only way is to improve methods and processes, and to eliminate waste."

When we hear a manufacturer or merchant complain that prices must remain high and cannot decline again on account of prosperity, we recall that the most successful corporations are those which advance their efficiency to such an extent that they can lower prices, and the most successful merchandising establishments are those which buy and sell goods in volume, thereby offering minimum prices. Low cost of manufacture and large-scale production are the principal factors in industrial efficiency, while judicious purchasing and quick selling of merchandise at attractive prices are the chief means of marketing at retail.

While it is true that the law of supply and demand fixes prices, it must be borne in mind that the vigor of demand is sustained by low prices. Demand falls off when prices are high, and low prices have the effect of stimulating demand. This is why in commerce in general there is a law of gravitation which is ever affecting prices, the existing tendency being at all times, even when demand is strong and prices high, to force prices downward.

There is a maximum price which the consumer will pay for anything. It is the price based on his means and the utility of what he wants. This maximum price bears some relationship to the great and increasing number of articles manufactured and displayed. Competition not only prevails in the manufacture and sale of the same class of goods, but also among all classes.

It is competition, combined with improved economical production, which is the life of trade. In those days when the standard of living is the result of high pay and inventiveness, commerce prospers and grows on the paradoxical combination of high wages and low prices. On any other plan business would decay.

FIRESIDES.

In the chilly nights we're turning to the open fireplaces burning, and we find a heap of coals buried there. As the winter ish we're sitting we'll find our minds a drifting to the bubble we've created in the air.

Monster logs in darkness blazy make our thoughts a trifle fuzzy. We imagine things quite mystic, so it seems. Little sparks that spit and flicker always carry us much quicker than most anything unto the land of dreams.

Through the flames in diffrent places, we can pick familiar faces as they're formed in spirits of yellow, blue and red. Then a sparklet disarranges and the flaming picture changes. Every scene that's born is quite as quickly dead.

Carefree, how we love you. And it seems that with the mystic touch you're dead. There's comfort in your embers and your worshiper remembers that you're calling when a nodding of a rest.

WHETHER 'TIS THE WEATHER

One of the several things about which I am so crazy, cracked, queer or sarcastic, is the weather as a hypothetical factor of sickness. I maintain that there isn't any evidence that any kind of weather causes any kind of disease—baring sunburn and frostbite. So when I come across new evidence bearing on this problem—for it is still a problem with most of the laity and a considerable share of the physicians—I pounce upon it eagerly, for naturally I want to find out as early as possible if I must begin hedging in order to keep aligned with science.

Dr. V. C. Kinney of Wellsville, N. Y., offers the latest testimony. In the course of a report he recently made on some original blood pressure observations, he has found that there is often a variation of blood pressure on the right and left sides of the body, as much as 30 mm. difference in certain circumstances. He believes the pressure varies in different parts of the body. The blood pressure is often erratic, too. Dr. Kinney finds marked changes in the reading in some cases in which the pressure is 20 to 30 millimeters higher or lower within a few hours than when the patient first arrives at the sanitarium. This happens he says, in cases of cardiovascular disease even though the patients are not of a nervous temperament and usually in incipient cases before the degenerative changes in heart arteries or kidneys have advanced. Physicians in general practice do not often see such cases. Probably the patients consider themselves "run down from overwork" or "nervously exhausted" and seek rather the care provided in a good sanitarium. That is, provided they are not misguided by the latest panacea.

But it is when Dr. Kinney turns his hand to the weather problems that he gets my goat. He seems inclined to suspect the weather of having something to do with these erratic blood pressure readings. He believes the majority of apoplectic strokes coincide with some marked atmospheric disturbance. One such disturbance is a sudden swinging of the wind into the northwest. In winter time after a moist, warm spell, the temperature drops down around zero and the air becomes exceedingly dry, all in 24 hours perhaps. Whenever such a change of weather occurs, as it may from one to six times in the winter, Dr. Kinney keeps close tabs of the blood pressure readings of sanitarium patients. They rarely show less than 10 to 30 points rise or fall. Then says Dr. Kinney, "then I watch the newspapers, the number of cerebral hemorrhages during these spells is appalling."

Knowing the newspapers as I do, for don't I help make 'em?—I can only say that cerebral hemorrhages in the newspapers are not reliable. We get off some queer stuff in the newspapers when we attempt to tell people just what ails the man or just what operation was done on him. Newspaper science, doctors call this unconscious humor.

People preparing to have cerebral hemorrhages should not permit the weather to hurry them or worry them. The road to well(s)ville is open in all weathers.

Baby Sits Up

My baby is nearly 4 months old and makes no effort to sit up. Is this anything wrong? (A. N. B.)

Answer—Normally babies begin to sit up about the seventh month.

The first voluntary movements are made in the fourth month, such as attempts to grasp objects placed within reach. At the ninth or tenth month the baby makes the first effort to bear weight on the feet. At 11 months the skeleto muscles are strong enough to support the head.

Tars' Dance Feature Of School Play

A sailor is not a true sailor unless he can dance the hornpipe, and a play about sailors would seem lacking unless the sailors' hornpipe is incorporated in it. Six boys, with Miss Zuehlike, will dance the hornpipe in "The Nautical Knot," the light opera that the glee clubs and orchestra of Appleton High school will present in Lawrence Memorial Chapel Friday night.

The leading characters in the opera will be taken by Eugene Cole, Charlotte Schuelke, Florence Downer, Robert Mitchell and Allen Harwood. Other parts will be taken by Clair Miller, Harold Eads, William Meyer, Marie McCloskey, Miriam Peabody, Phyllis Ornstein, Annette Post, Dona Herrmann and Alberta Schultheis.

Marie McCloskey, Mary Voeks and Ora Zuehlike will take part in the specialty dance numbers. Miss McCloskey has directed a group of girls who will appear in a Spanish ballet.

Clavilux Perfected Only After Years Of Struggle

100 Attend Banquet For Dads And Sons

How Thomas Wilfred, inventor of the Clavilux, gave up a large inheritance, ran away from home, clung to his dream through years of hard struggle, makes a story that is fascinating and romantic. The result of his perseverance will be demonstrated to Appleton people Wednesday, Dec. 10, when he appears in Lawrence Memorial Chapel to entertain with Clavilux, the organ of light.

Wilfred's father, the commander-in-chief of the Danish army, had nothing of sympathy for his music loving, artistic boy, so the youth ran away from home and the stern militaristic discipline there.

As a troubadour he wandered Europe, eking out a living, finally arriving at a monastery in northern Germany. There, among the rare old musical instruments, he found much delight. With the consent of the friars, he strung and tuned a beautiful old lute, finally making lovely music upon it. Thomas Wilfred was first of all the accomplished musician, but with the ever-growing dream that somehow might have a scale corresponding to music, he continuously experimented with what he calls himself, a little cigar box, strong lights and prisms.

Again, as a man, he wandered Europe.

Again, as a musician, he wandered Europe, appearing in concert before the highest dignitaries of France. Next, on invitation from the court, he went to England where the King of Denmark was visiting. When Denmark's king heard Wilfred's music he urged him to appear before the Danish court. And so he came home again, and the boy, now a man grown and a success, met his father, again. Once more the father sought to win his son to the military life with the promise of a large inheritance, but again, as before, Wilfred was true to his profession.

This time, on leaving home, he sought America. And here, in the laboratory of his beautiful home on Long Island, his marvelous invention was, and is still being, perfected. To this laboratory, enthralled by the beauty of his invention came Ted Shawn and Ruth St. Denis, spending six months there trying to work out some plan by which Clavilux could furnish setting for their dancing, but so far the prohibitive cost has prevented.

So curious are audiences everywhere to see his instrument's mechanism that front seats are most sought after and eager eyes watch to see how the thing is done. But locked in the great steel box itself are the precious secrets. Mr. Wilfred plays his compositions from a sheet just as a musician does.

CLUB DEVELOPED
IN HIGH SCHOOLQuartets and Octets Organized by School's Music Department

Kaukauna—Much progress has been made in the music department of the high school under the direction of Miss Ethel Heise. Although little has been said of the school work has been developed considerably. In addition the most promising singers have been chosen to sing in small groups as quartets and double quartets. Both boys' and girls' glee clubs have large enrolments.

The only feature of the music training of the students which is not being carried out is the orchestra. It is apparent there is not even enough material to form the nucleus for such an organization.

An octet has been chosen from members of the girls' glee club to do more specialized work than the club is able to do as a whole. Catherine Mauer and Cordell Runte are first sopranos; Helen Palinko and Lezelle Drennen second sopranos; Dorothy Haas and Valeria Vansevenhoven, first alto; and Gretchen Drennen and Aurea Horneke, second sopranos.

Tryouts were held a week ago to find a boys' quartet. The following were chosen: William Woelz, first tenor; Jack Parent, second tenor; Carl Grimm, first bass, and Lester Liedermann, second bass. On various occasions a double quartet will be of more advantage so Miss Heise has chosen another group of four for the purpose. They are Walter Kilkes, first tenor; Edward Heusinger, second tenor; Kenneth Ryan bass; Willis Mueller, second bass.

at Waupaca Armory Next
Tuesday EveningSpecial to Post-Crescent
Waupaca—The high school basketball team will engage Iola high in a game Friday night at the local school gymnasium. Another interesting game is booked by the local National Guards for Thursday night when Fond du Lac guards come here. Waupaca guards will be represented only by home players. The lineup has not yet been announced. However the chance of local stars would probably be Pope, Rasmussen, Durrant, Gundersen and Button.

The city team will journey to the western part of the state the last of the week to engage Sparta and some other team enroute.

M'GILLAN PASSES THIRTIETH YEAR AS FIRE FIGHTER

Fire Chief Has Been on Job Since 1894—Reider Started 11 Days Earlier

Wednesday, Dec. 3, was the thirtieth anniversary of the entrance of Chief G. P. McMillan in the Appleton fire department in point of service. Nicholas B. Reider, assistant chief, preceded him by 11 days.

A third man who will celebrate his thirtieth year on Dec. 3, is a fireman, John McCallum, assistant chief, who entered the department on April 21, 1895. The remaining four captains also have seen long service. Captain Emil Schmitz, starting in 1896; Capt. William H. Huron in 1898; Capt. Joseph Kuehner in 1901; and Capt. Joseph Dreicer in 1902.

A significant thing about the service of these veterans is that 30 years ago when the city's population and property wealth were considerably less than now the fire department personnel was just as large as it is now. When Chief McMillan and Captain Reider came into the department it had just been reorganized under the full time paid system. Before that it consisted partly of paid men and partly of volunteers. Nine men went on duty in November, 1894, thereby increasing the department to 20, of which there is only one left in the service.

HAD TWO STATIONS

Thirty years ago the city maintained two stations, No. 1 on the southwest corner of Washington and Oneida, and Station No. 2 on State st. Both were brick buildings and both have disappeared. The latter was dismantled during the past year. Six men served at No. 2 engine house and 14 at No. 1 station which included the chief and the electrician. The former had a hose wagon and a fire engine and No. 1 had a hose wagon and a hook and ladder truck. The chief's vehicle was added the following spring, at which time the department was keeping nine horses.

A third engine house was located in 1895 in the "flats" of the Fourth ward, where Capt. Reider was placed in charge. At that time there were no men in this station, five in the Third ward engine house and 12 in Station No. 1.

Under the original shift system each man was permitted to be free a half day every other day. The free period consisted of three hours in the forenoon and four in the afternoon. The system was changed many times and that in force before the present two-platoon system was 24 hours of leisure every fourth day with meals to be eaten at home.

Good's was said to be the last horse of the fire department in 1920 when the department was completely motorized. In January, 1922, it vacated the Fourth and Third ward engine houses and began to operate under the centralized plan. The present force of 22 men will be augmented to 28 on Jan. 1 when six new men will go on duty. In the last 30 years 112 men have seen service in the department. The largest fire ever battled was the Ideal Coal and Lumber company blaze when nine streams had to be used. The most costly fires, however, were the Riverside Fibre and Paper company and the Wisconsin Match company fires.

*SPELLING MATCHES PART OF 4TH DISTRICT WORK

A regular old fashioned spelling match took the place of the usual morning assembly period of the seventh and eighth grades of the Fourth Ward school on Wednesday. Red and green slips of paper were drawn from a cap by the pupils, who took sides according to their color. The red side stood up longest against the terrible armfuls of the difficult spelling book, but the victor of the match went down on the word "measure" ment."

These spelling matches are periodical in the Fourth district, and occur about every six weeks. The methods of conducting the match varies, so there will be no monotony for the pupils. The last contest was held between ten members of the seventh grade and ten of the eighth grade. These 20 pupils were chosen because they had attained the highest marks in their regular school work.

OLD CHEMICAL THEORY EXPLAINED TO STUDENTS

"The Philistines Theory of Burning" was the subject of an address by Irving Ozanne of Naenah before the college chemistry club this week. The philistine theory, as explained by Mr. Ozanne, has been prevalent since 1700, before people were informed of oxygen and electricity. Donald Davis, Appleton president of the group also spoke on various chemists' pictures were exhibited to illustrate the talk.

COURT RULES OUT CONFESSION SIGNED BY MRS. SPENCER

Saleswoman's Admission of Guilt Obtained Under Duress, Court Holds

After an afternoon of testimony before Judge Fred V. Heinemann in municipal court in the embezzlement case of Mrs. Delphine Spencer, wife of Rex Spencer, Bellairiet, Wednesday the case was continued until Friday morning.

Pettibone-Peabody company, complainant in the case, had charged Mrs. Spencer with taking merchandise valued at more than $2,000 during the years that she was employed as a saleswoman at the store. John A. Lonsdorff, district attorney, was in charge of the prosecution.

The defense, represented by Rooney & Grogan, won a point when Judge Heinemann, who was acting for Judge A. M. Spencer in the case ruled out Mrs. Spencer's signed confession when it was contended that the confession was obtained under coercion. Witnesses for the state admitted the confession was not obtained without difficulty.

With the confession ruled out, all that the state was able to produce in the testimony as to the amount of goods appropriated was about $15 or $20. Mrs. Roy Garrett of Valley City, N. D., who said she was an auditor, testified on the stand that when she bought a pair of shoes and some buckles at Mrs. Spencer's counter the saleswoman failed to make out a receipt or check for the buckles, and that accounts were short of this amount received.

Other witnesses were officials and employees of the Pettibone-Peabody company, J. D. Steele, John Neller and H. L. Post. At the outset all witnesses were excluded from the courtroom except the one on the stand in order to prevent the others from knowing what had been testified before them.

Scientists Skeptical Of Latest Atom Discovery

By Charles P. Stewart
Washington—If Dr. T. F. Wall of Sheffield (England) has really discovered a means of breaking up atoms at reasonable cost, as he says he has, scientists at the government bureau of standards here declare the world is due for a period of change such as never before in its history.

The bureau of standards experts are frankly skeptical, however.

Not that atoms cannot be disintegrated. Sir Ernest Rutherford of Cambridge disintegrated some—10 or 15 of them—one after another.

By the use of radium particles he succeeded in directing an electrical beam into the atom's interior, and blew it up, literally. But to do this he had to generate several million watts of electricity, at a cost of several hundred dollars, and all he got in return for his trouble and expense was half a watt of atomic energy.

THOUGHT IT UNPROFITABLE

Sir Ernest figured he could get one millimeter of hydrogen, which is the source of the atom's power, out of an atom of aluminum, by using all the alpha particles in one gram of radium costing $100,000.

Consequently he gave it as his opinion that atomic energy never could be developed profitably.

The bureau of standards experts incline to agree with him, though of course they're waiting to hear more concerning Dr. Wall's method before making up their minds definitely.

An atom really, they explain at the bureau, is a miniature solar system, with negative electrons revolving around a positive sun.

Scientists have found means of attracting the electrons away from the sun, but it is in the sun itself that the atom's energy resides. Little is it, the sun is so energetic that,

STANDARD OIL CO. WANTS SCIENCE COURSE USED HERE

An exchange of ideas on scientific education is being carried on by the Appleton vocational school and the Standard Oil Co. The Standard Oil Co. maintains several instructors for their men in the field of science. Recently H. H. Helling, director of the local school, received a letter from this corporation, asking him for the course of work used in his science classes. F. F. Martin and Clyde Cawley have charge of these classes. They have added original ideas to the course until it is exceptionally interesting. Students regard these classes as entertainment rather than work.

ONLY TWO DIPHTHERIA CASES IN CITY NOW

Two cases of diphtheria, neither of them serious, have been reported to Dr. W. C. Felton, city health commissioner, in the last week. One of the patients is a Chinese student residing at Brokaw hall and the other is Miss Katherine Pratt, daughter of Dr. J. K. Pratt, 626 Lawest.

This is an exceptionally fine record for a city of this size at this season of the year, according to Dr. Felton.

SCOUTS WILL SHOW THEIR ACTIVITIES TO VALLEY PUBLIC

Demonstration Will Be Held Friday, Dec. 12, at Roosevelt School, Neenah

Bridge building, first aid and safety first are among the activities that will be demonstrated at the rally of Valley council Boy Scouts of America, at Neenah on Friday evening, Dec. 12. P. O. Kelcher, valley executive, has secured use of the gymnasium at Roosevelt school there for the gathering.

Each troop in the valley will be asked to put on a stunt or demonstration of some kind to show what scouting teaches. Troop No. 5, All Saints church Appleton, has offered to show bridge building, troop 2, First Methodist church, volunteered for first aid and the scouts at Kimberly will display safety first methods.

This rally was planned by valley council largely because the parents and the public know little of the actual accomplishments of boy scout training. They have a chance to learn through these demonstrations. Every boy scout in the valley will be urged to attend and bring his parents. The public also will be invited with promise of a program that will be unique and fascinating.

SCHOOL HEADS HELP EACH OTHER HOLD UP STANDARDS

The first of a series of conferences of the directors of vocational schools of the Fox river valley will be held at Fond du Lac on Friday, Martineau, Beaver Dam, Two Rivers and Menomonee are also included in this group. The object of the conference is to visit a school during the day and then discuss its curriculum, methods of instruction, equipment, local conditions and in that way visualize vocational education in each of the cities involved. The director of the homes school is questioned thoroughly by the others, acting as unfamiliar outsiders, on all of the methods he uses and must be prepared to defend them and point out their values to vocational education. In this way he is aided by all the other directors in raising the standards of his school.

These meetings will be held once a month for the rest of the school term. The next meeting will be in Appleton in January.

PEABODY WILL SPEAK AT OSHKOSH BANQUET

Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor of the First Congregational church, is to be the speaker Monday evening at the seventy-fifth anniversary banquet of Plymouth Congregational church Oshkosh. The Rev. William Rose Dixion, pastor there, will act as toast master.

The Oshkosh church is planning three days of festivities with the Rev. Theodore Faville, state Congregational superintendent, and Dr. Howell D. Davies of Wauwatosa, as the other principal speakers. Special meetings will be held Sunday, Monday and Wednesday of the coming week.

Civil War Day Papers Paid With Wood And Ham

Days when editors took wood and ham produce in payment for subscriptions to their papers and when the country was all excitement over preparations for the Civil war are recalled in a copy of one of Appleton's earliest newspapers. The Appleton Motor, which Mrs. A. G. Meadting, 1066 Prospect, found among the personal effects of her grandparents.

A framed eulogy of her grandfather, James Simons with the printed words "Paid with wood and ham" was brought to the Ryan shop to be framed. When the back board was removed, a copy of the Motor containing the Simon obituary notice was found preserved there. It was dated Thursday May 16, 1881.

RYAN WAS PUBLISHER

F. A. Ryan and E. D. Ross, were editors and proprietors of the paper at that time. It was issue No. 33 of the second volume indicating that the publication probably was in its second year. Mr. Ryan was a brother of Sam Ryan, the early publisher of the Appleton Crescent. The Motor was taken over by the Crescent after it has been in existence a short time.

These extracts from the Motor show the odd policies under which newspapers were operated.

Wood—Subscribers who are exacting to pay their subscriptions in wood would oblige us by hurrying in."

Nice hams those brought in town this week on Mr. A. P. Lewis of Greenfield. The one that he deposited with us in payment for the Motor weighed 25½ pounds; and for express we never have seen excelled.

He deserves to be sheriff, and if we could elect him he would be any others who wish to pay for the Motor in the same way have the privilege."

Apologies are made in another paragraph for the fact that the paper is not compact with editorial matter.

The publishers say they are sure the readers would rather have their paper on time thus incomplete than have it well filled and receive it two or three days late.

LIGHT INFANTRY FORMED

Appleton's preparation for the Civil war was reflected in an item headed "Our Company Is Accepted." It said Lieut. T. R. Hudd returned from Madison and the south with commissions for himself, Capt. Pleischke and Second Lieut. J. H. Marston. These were to be officers of Appleton Light Infantry company. The governor had accepted the company and its members were to meet at 5 o'clock every day for drill.

Telegraphic dispatches from parts of the country told how men were being mobilized in each place for the Union army. There were indications that St. Louis was one of the centers where the confederates were in hot revolt. A company of government troops was fired

RELIC COLLECTION SHOWN AT COLLEGE

RE-ELECT OFFICERS OF A. A. L. AT DALE

Ripon Lecturer Brings Collection of Antiques to College Here

A collection of historical relics, curiosities of inestimable value, the result of twenty-five years of collecting, was exhibited in the Lawrence library on Tuesday by Albert H. Griffith, honorary lecturer on Lincoln and antiquities at Ripon college.

The set is heterogeneous and covers a wide scope of years. The oldest antiquities are Babylonian, 4000 years old. Several Egyptian relics date from 1200 B. C., and there are Roman relics of 300 B. C. and Greek relics of even greater antiquity. Other curiosities are Indian relics, old French parchments, early printed books a Ptolemy geography dated 1641, ancient and modern coins, the oldest in the group being a Greek coin of 700 B. C.

Mr. Griffith also has a complete series of British legal documents for every reign of British sovereigns from Elizabeth to Victoria. He has three leaves from the old missals, the prayer books made by the monks in the fifteenth century. He possesses a map by Volvra, general overseer of Zion, Ill., to show that the world is flat.

He has also studied the life of Lincoln and has secured many documents from the Civil War or historical importance. He owns unusual copies of the life of Lincoln in Greek, Hawaiian, Chinese, Japanese, English, Spanish, French, Dutch, Portuguese, Danish, German, Swedish and Russian.

"My most treasured possession," said Mr. Griffith, "is a genuine leaf of the Gutenberg Bible, the first book ever printed from moveable type."

Mr. Griffith spoke to the students in chapel assembly on Lincoln, and lectured to several history classes. He explained several old books and parchments to the class in library science.

ORATORS COMPETE IN SCHOOL CONTEST

Herman Brockhaus and Kenneth St. Clair, both seniors, will compete in an oratorical contest at 4:15 Thursday afternoon in Appleton high school assembly to decide who is to represent the school at the Fox River Valley Foremen's conference at Manitowoc on Dec. 12. Mr. Brockhaus's oration is "The Delusion of Equality," and St. Clair's oration is "The New Leader." The public has been invited to attend. Karl A. Windesheim of the high school faculty is supervising the event.

The schools to be represented in the valley conference are East Green Bay, West Green Bay, Appleton, Sheboygan, Manitowoc, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and Marinette.

MARINETTE GIRL WINS LATIN SCHOLARSHIP

Mary Martin of Marinette, won first prize and Helene Peterson of West Green Bay, second prize in the Norman Brokaw Scholarship examination in Latin, it was announced by Prof. Arthur H. Weston. Evelyn Cook of Appleton received honorable mention.

The examination this year was held Nov. 1, and there were eleven candidates for the prizes, the largest number for at least five years.

The Norman Brokaw Scholarship is awarded on the basis of a competitive examination in high school Latin. It consists of two prizes, $60 and $40. Only students regularly matriculated as freshmen and members of the freshmen class in college Latin are eligible. The members must continue to maintain their high class standing throughout the year, or forfeit the scholarships.

MENASHA MOTHER STILL BELIEVES HER SON LIVES

Left to right—Mrs. E. W. Bergeron, mother of Urban, who clings to the hope that her son may not be dead; Mrs. Stella Emerick, Bergeron's sister who wrung the confession from St. Clair which proved him an imposter; Urban John Bergeron, Menasha soldier reported by war department in July, 1918, as killed in action on July 18 and whose parents believe alive; Robert E. St. Clair, convict in the Federal prison in Atlanta, Ga., who confessed that he tried to pass himself off as Urban Bergeron. Below is the Bergeron home, Ahnapee-st, Menasha.

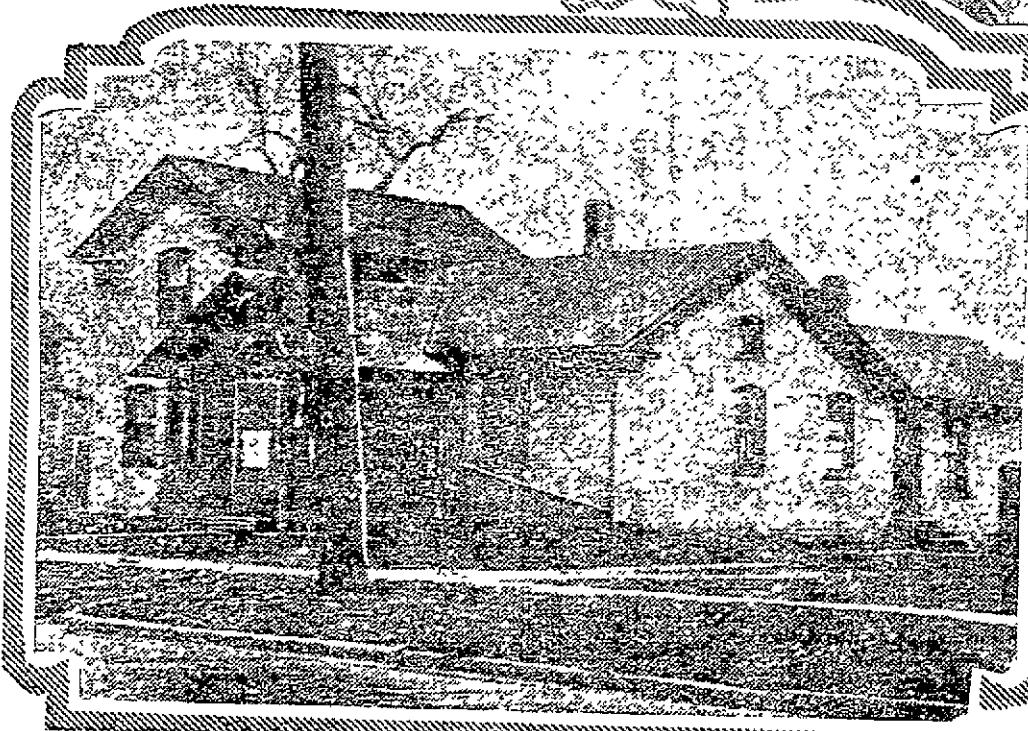

Courtesy St. Louis Post-Dispatch

HERE are the principals in the celebrated Bergeron case of Menasha which received nationwide publicity a few weeks ago because of a mother's tenacious belief that her son still lived despite assurance from the war department that he had died in France and that his body was interred in the family lot of the Menasha cemetery. The efforts of an imposter to pass as the lost son of the Bergerons and thereby swindle them out of their hard-earned savings were foiled by a sister of the missing young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergeron had received the body of a soldier, killed in France, as the body of their son and had buried it in the Menasha cemetery. Many months after they learned that a man who resembled their son was still alive and Mr. Bergeron then began a long search for him. He finally was found in the federal prison at Atlanta where he was serving a sentence under the name of Robert E. St. Clair. St. Clair, it was learned, was wanted in many parts of the country for various crimes. He tried to impress Mr. and Mrs. Bergeron as their son and his knowledge of intimate things about Urban's life confirmed the old people in their belief that he was their boy.

But Urban's sister, Mrs. Emerick, was not convinced. She detected in St. Clair an air of deceit and she carefully laid a trap for him. It was a long task and a difficult one but she finally confronted St. Clair with evidence which wrung from him a confession that he was not Urban Bergeron and that he was trying to swindle the warrior's parents.

Mrs. Bergeron, however, has no bitterness for St. Clair, neither has she lost faith that her son lives. She still is hopeful that some day he will come back to them to cheer their declining years.

THE LATEST SENSATION IN RADIO!

The New DeForest D-12 Radiophone!

To the Public--

DeForest Radiophones are the standard in the Radio world. The D-12 gives you everything possible in Radio —and gives it to you easily.

Four tubes in the DeForest gives seven tube power and efficiency. It does not use up battery money and saves in the replacement, expense for tubes.

Dr. Lee DeForest himself, whose inventions have made modern radio possible, has also made possible a price which is $100 less than any receiver comparable in range, efficiency and beauty. This price, $161.20 includes everything ready for tuning in.

No aerial nor ground wire is required and the loud speaker is built into the instrument cabinet. It is so easy to work that women like to listen in while they do their sewing or housework.

DeForest tubes are recognized leaders in the tube field. Good tubes are absolutely essential to best results in tone and for proper undistorted amplification.

I use and recommend the DeForest Radiophone.

BIG DINNER TABOO ON GOLDEN RULE SUNDAY, DEC. 7

Public Is Asked to Eat Orphan Meal and Give Saving to Near East Tots

Sumptuous dinners are supposed to be taboo next Sunday, which has been designated as International golden rule Sunday when gifts of money are to be made for the orphans in the Near East.

People of all churches are asked to forego the usual special dinner on that day and eat the same kind of meal that the thousands of orphans under American care in Turkey are served daily. The ration usually is one of mush, condensed milk, bread or plain articles that are sufficient in quantity to keep the children nourished.

The difference between the cost of an orphan meal and that usually served is to be contributed to the Near East relief fund. Henry W. Tuttrop, president of the Citizens National bank, has consented to receive the money donated here and will send it to the Near East Relief headquarters in Milwaukee.

Thousands of children depend entirely on the annual gifts of the American public for sustenance. They are the tots that were left without parents or other kin during the Turkish massacres of Armenians. They have

After two days of regular basketball practice in Armory G, Lawrence cagers are beginning to show promise of a successful season this year. It is early to pick a varsity squad from the string of 25 candidates, but it looks as though Kotal is sure of a place at guard or forward. He was all around star of last year's quintet and seems to be going better than ever after a hard season on the gridiron.

Ashman, last season's center, is making a strong bid to keep his position. Zussman, Collings, Hubert, Heideman and Clarkes are out for forward positions, while Koshab, Groves and Higke are trying for places as guards.

Three regulars were lost last year. They were Cooke, center, Christopher, captain and guard, and Mills, forward, but there is plenty of promising material to fill the vacancies.

STIRBLING FIGHTS AT GRAND RAPIDS, DEC. 12

By Associated Press
Grand Rapids, Mich.—W. L. "Young" Stirbling, Georgia lightweight, has been engaged for a bout here Dec. 12, officers of the Olympic Athletic association announced. Stirbling's opponent has not been selected.

EXPECT ADVANCE GUARD OF WESTERN GRID SQUAD

Columbus, O.—The advance guard of college football stars who will play in an intersectional game here Saturday for the benefit of the municipal stadium fund, were due to arrive Thursday. Among those expected was Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, who will have charge of the western squad.

Winnipeg — Ed "Strangler" Lewis, heavyweight wrestling champion, defended his title by defeating Jatirinda Gobur, Hindu, in straight falls.

Miami, Fla.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul lightweight, was signed to meet either Jiggy Walker of Kansas City or Sailor Maxted of New York in Miami, Feb. 16.

Unbroken String of Victories Extends Over Period of Four Years

New York—This was a tough season for undefeated teams with a long string of victories.

Marquette and Cornell, long undefeated until this fall, both suffered reverses.

Until Williams trounced Cornell, the "Big Red" team had not lost a game since 1920.

One of the men who passed up the present heavyweight champion as a thin slice of bologna, Wm. Fred Winsor, is now in dispute with authorities on the Pacific coast as the result of alleged fakey in trying to establish another heavyweight, Tony Fuentes, as a great knocker-out.

Still another member of the large class of ex-managers of Dempsey, John the Barber, is back in his old haunts here, trying to persuade bald-headed clients to use his new miracle tonic, guaranteed to grow any thing from a Valentino vandyke to noisy twins.

SOLD TUNNEY FOR $5000
Doo Bagley, who prides himself on his shrewdness, sold Gene Tunney to Billy Gibson for $5000. At the time Tunney looked like a heel print in the chocolate pudding. Bagley chuckled to himself. "That's one time the great Gibson was gyped."

A few months later Tunney won the light heavyweight championship. Last fall he was matched with Carpenter at the Polo grounds. The fight drew more than $100,000. Bagley saw it. But had to borrow taxi fare to get there.

George Lawrence, veteran manager, gave Harry Wills away for nothing. Lawrence had Wills and Sam McVey, another black, at the time. The two were not very friendly. Lawrence let them get together in a fight. It was not a bad fight. McVey won. Wills seemed to back up when pressed.

"I don't think he's got any heart. Mr. Lawrence," McVey said after it was over.

GAVE WILLS AWAY
The next day Lawrence met Jack Bulger, another manager.

"Say I owe you a hat don't I?" asked Lawrence. Bulger nodded. Lawrence told him to take Wills and call it square.

Wills had made his present manager, Paddy Mullins, almost $100,000. Lawrence, meanwhile, is tour

RUTH FERGUSON

Milwaukee—If Fred Dawson, football coach and athletic director of the University of Nebraska, is on his way to Madison to confer with members of the athletic council relative to the position as head football coach, he is doing so unsolicited.

This became definitely known when members of the council, athletic department and "W" club denied that Dawson had been asked to confer with Badger authorities regarding the job.

T. E. Jones, acting director of the department at Madison, denied that Dawson had been asked to confer with anyone at Wisconsin about the job.

Members of the council also denied that he was being sought.

"NO CONFERENCE" COUNCIL

"As a matter of fact the athletic council has not requested anyone to come here and confer on the athletic situation," a member of the council said Wednesday night.

A wild rumor that the "W" club had asked Dawson to come to Madison and confer with members of the council was辟iated by E. J. Sampson, secretary of the club.

In a conversation with a representative of The Milwaukee Sentinel, the long distance telephone Wednesday night, Mr. Sampson said:

"It is news to me that Mr. Dawson is coming here for any conference, and I can say that the "W" club most certainly has not asked him to come."

The rumor that Dawson was in Madison came out of Lincoln, Neb., in a press dispatch.

TO ATTEND MEETING

It is likely, however, that Dawson is on his way to the Big Ten conference meeting at Chicago Friday and left early to enter into negotiations with Big Ten heads relative to games next season.

RECIPES

Other Spicy Recipes For Christmas Boxes

BY SISTER MARY

Christmas cookies always taste better than any other kind.

And, included in a Christmas box with a fruit cake and candies, will bring good cheer to members of the family and friends away from home.

Yesterday I told you how to make fruit cake, either with or without eggs. The cookies and candy recipes today will delight the hearts of all. Made as stars and birds, Christmas trees and jolly Santas, are quite attractive as well as edible.

CRISP CHRISTMAS COOKIES

One cup butter and lard combined, 2 cups light brown sugar, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 3/4 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup finely chopped nuts, 1 cup finely shredded citron.

Cream shortening and beat in sugar. Beat eggs, water and vanilla. Mix and sift flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Mix citron and nuts with dry ingredients. Add liquid ingredients to creamed shortening. Add dry ingredients and work until well blended. Roll as thinly as possible on a well-floured molding board. Cut into fancy shapes or with a round cutter and bake in a hot oven while rolling and cutting part of the dough, keep the rest in a cold place.

COCONUT MACAROONS

Two eggs (white, 1/2 cup shredded coconut, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Few grains salt.

Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry. Beat in sugar. Put into top of double boiler over hot water. When lukewarm add coconut, cornstarch and vanilla. Mix well and drop from a small spoon onto pans lined with oiled paper. Bake in a slow oven until tops are delicately browned.

TOFFEE CANDY

Candy that is easily and quickly made appeals to the kiddies. They love to make candy, but fondants and the sort that needs careful handling are beyond small fingers.

No Christmas would be considered complete without its "toffee." The recipe:

Two cups light brown sugar, 2 tablespoons water, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 3 tablespoons butter.

Put all the ingredients into a smooth sauce pan. Let stand a few minutes until the sugar is partially melted. Put over a low fire and bring to the boiling point. Do not stir. Let boil until the syrup threads from a fork dipped into it. Pour a few drops into a cup of cold water. If the syrup forms threads that crack when they strike against the side of the cup the toffee is done.

Pour into well-buttered pans. Crease with the blunt edge of a knife and let stand until hard. Break into squares formed by the creases when cold.

PEANUT CANDY

Two cups granulated sugar, 1 cup shelled and skinned roasted peanuts. Put sugar into an iron frying pan. Melt until a warm straw color. Stir in the peanuts and pour into well-buttered pan. Mark into squares and break on creases when cold and brittle.

Household Suggestions

SHARPEN FOOD CHOPPER

You can sharpen the knives of a food chopper by running bits of scouring brick through it.

REMOVE FRUIT STAINS

Use cornmeal and vinegar to remove fruit stains from the hands.

SMALL MEASUREMENTS

A half-teaspoon measure is very handy and accurate for making very small measurements.

ASBESTOS SHEET

An asbestos sheet such as is used under a sheet cake tin is good to be used on the ironing board on the end you set the flat on.

USE WHISK BROOMS

Use whisk brooms to clean valour velvet or heavy upholstery fabrics as they do not mark them as heavier brushes do.

Christmas Candy

HOW TO MAKE PANOUCHI

Two cups light brown sugar, 1/2 cup cream, 1/2 cup milk, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup finely chopped nuts.

Put sugar, cream and milk into a smooth sauce pan. Let stand until sugar is melted. Put over a low fire and bring to the boiling point without stirring. When the whole surface of the syrup is bubbling, begin to stir and stir constantly until cooked. Just before removing from the fire, stir in butter. Remove from fire and let stand undisturbed until cold. Beat until creamy and thick. Stir in nuts and when dull looking turn into a buttered pan. Cut in squares when firm.

The vanilla is added when the candy is cool.

The candy is "done" when a few drops tried in a saucer of cold water can be rolled into a ball between the fingers.

Alderman Suggests That New Site Be Obtained for Department Buildings

Appleton Warmer's club was given a hearing in the common council on Wednesday to obtain a hearing day and to call for a hearing on the streets of the city for the survey of the areas.

The Winter's Home society of Wausau opened in a similar favor but the council willing to avoid the close succession of the days suggested to the society that its tag day be held a few months later.

A C. Rosser, city attorney, who represented the city at the public hearing conducted in the courthouse recently to investigate the application of the Wisconsin telephone company for an increase in telephone rates in the Appleton district was instructed to go to Madison and attend the above hearing which will take place in the railroad commission's office on Dec. 1.

A request of Chief George P. Gillan of the fire department for 1,000 feet of additional hose was referred to the fire and water committee. An application from Anton Jelotz to conduct a soft drink parlor at 57 State St. was referred to the police and license committee. A petition for a street light on Mueller st. between Second and Fourth st. was referred to the street lighting committee.

A C. Homan Auto Bus company of Menasha was given a license to operate an additional bus between Appleton and the Twin Cities, and a license was issued to Carl C. Peotter to operate a bus between Appleton and Kaukauna via John st. and the south side of the Fox river. Harlan Grant was given a license to conduct a dance in Armory G Friday evening.

Upon the recommendation of the street and bridge committee R. M. Connell, city engineer, was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for a temporary structure to serve as shelter for street equipment if it became impossible to house all the equipment in the street department barns. Alderman Hassmorn and Richard urged a new site for street department buildings before any more structures are built. Chairman Hansen of the committee, however,

CUCKOO FRESHMAN MAKES 'EM CUCKOO WITH CUCKOO CALL

Residents of the First ward have been startled at 7 o'clock the last few mornings by the call of a cuckoo from the direction of Delta Iota fraternity house. The call didn't sound quite natural, and seemed to come from the top of the house, which is not exactly the place a cuckoo would choose for his morning call.

Upon investigation, the cuckoo turned out to be one of the freshman pledges who is being initiated in this novel way. However the freshman morning song is not an absolutely reliable one which will continue with any sort of regularity through the winter, so persons are warned not to set their clocks by the cuckoo call.

It was decided that authorizing the engineer to prepare plans did not commit the council to the construction project.
